AAWBC Celebrates Its 10th Anniversary!

It has been a productive 10 years! We accomplished a great deal. We have awarded over $25,000 in scholarships to aid in the studies of Arab American students. We’ve hosted more than 35 events that help to empower Arab American women of diverse professions and industries. We’ve also been able to recognize 9 extraordinary Arab American professional women as our Arab American Business Woman of the Year. Additionally, we have been able to create our own web show “Her Path to Success” that is a unique online educational program under development, which is accessible to anyone.

This year, as we celebrate 10 years of service, we look back at all that we have accomplished and continue to look towards the future and strive to be the best organization we can be for our members and community. We have many exciting things planned for 2017.
Looking forward to many more years of success!

Don't miss out on the AAWBC 10th Annual Networking Breakfast

This year marks the 10th Annual Arab American Women's Business Council Breakfast. This signature event will take place Thursday, December 8th 2016 at Byblos Banquets in Dearborn, Michigan from 9:00 am-10:30 am. Registration begins at 8:30am.

Our breakfast has grown to attract professional men and women from various industries. This year, our keynote speaker will be Anne Doyle. Anne is a journalist, speaker, businesswoman, elected official and mother who has been on the front lines of women's progress for over four decades.

The AAWBC will also honor Joumana Kayrouz for our 2016 Arab American Business Woman of the Year. Joumana is the founder and owner of the Michigan Center for Personal Injury and the Law Offices of Joumana Kayrouz PLLC. She is one of the most recognized attorneys in Michigan and a pioneer in her field.

The AAWBC will continue in its tradition of giving scholarships at the breakfast to young Arab American women who have excelled academically. We will also be holding a silent auction that assists the AAWBC in raising funds for our scholarships annually.

AAWBC and inFORUM - What a Great Event!

On September 21, 2016, AAWBC and inFORUM held a joint network session to meet and greet each other in a social and business gathering. The main goal was to network with other women organization's and learn about their mission and vision and determine how we could work together, because we are stronger together.
The event was held at The Arab American National Museum which was the perfect setting for an evening of camaraderie celebrating new and renewed connections and friendships. Presentation was made to learn about both organization's missions and on-going activities. It was so wonderful to find out that we had more similarities than differences. We were all inspired by what both women organizations are doing to empower business women's.

The vibe in the room was warm, welcoming and energizing. We witnessed many great conversations and genuine fun being had by all! We had enthusiasm, excitement and a lot of good laughs.

Members and guests took advantage of touring the museum after the event and enjoyed the diverse culture and its beauty.

As a result of our joint work together, inFORUM extended a special discounted rate to AAWBC members for a Professional Membership to inFORUM. AAWBC paid members should visit InForum's Membership Page and use the promo code: AAWBC to receive a 30% discount on annual membership.

2017 Sponsorship Opportunities

Sponsorship not only allows us to continue moving forward with our mission of empowering women through networking, but also through leadership and educational/professional development opportunities. Sponsorships also allow us to continue to award scholarships. Another incredible sponsorship opportunity is to invest in our “Her Path to Success” efforts. In 2017 we will be continuing our web-based professional development series in which we not only help motivate women to achieve success but also give them the tools necessary to reach their goals.

Sponsors also receive a wide range of benefits, depending on the level of sponsorship they choose. Our benefits packages range anywhere from our Platinum Sponsor at $15,000 to our Supporter Sponsor at $1,000.

We at the AAWBC are very grateful to all our current and potential sponsors, and look forward to our best year yet! Be a part of something special, help empower women and take advantage of great opportunities to network and grow further professionally!
