Arab American Business Women's Council Scholarship Fund Requirement

This fund is established by the Arab American Women's Business Council Scholarship Committee of Southeast Michigan to recognize and encourage scholastic achievement and to provide assistance to financially disadvantaged Arab American female students in financing their education. This fund is to be established by the first $500 in cash raised by the AAWBC Scholarship Committee.

The endowment fund is to be administered according the following provisions. To be eligible for consideration of the scholarships, the applicant must:

- Be an undergraduate or graduate student at an accredited college or university, or a high school senior planning on attending college within the United States for the upcoming Academic Year.
- Have at least one parent of Middle Eastern descent.
- Submit a completed application accompanied by:
 1. two letters of recommendation, and
 2. college transcripts or acceptance letter, and
 3. a brief statement demonstrating financial need.
- An essay summarizing your academic achievements and/or career goals, and also include in the one page paper, a paragraph explaining your interest in interest in Arab American culture

No more than 500 words, double spaced

- Recipients will be selected on the basis of scholastic achievement, desirable qualities of character and leadership, and financial need.
- Applications will be evaluated and recipients will be selected by the scholarship funding committee.
- Minimum award amount per recipient per year is $500.00. Final amount of scholarships is still to be determined by the AAWBC Board of Directors.
- Deadline for postmarked applications is in October (Please see website for exact date). Winner will be chosen on a date still to be determined.
- 4 to 5 Scholarships will be awarded and distributed on the AAWBC Annual Breakfast (See website for details on breakfast date).
