What is AAWBC?

Founded in October 2007 in Dearborn as a 501(c)3 nonprofit professional organization, the Arab American Women’s Business Council addresses the needs of Arab American women professionals and business owners as well as young Arab American women seeking professional or business careers in Michigan and across the country. Its purpose is to assist its members by providing mentorships, internships, scholarships and professional development programs.

How Does AAWBC Help You Maximize Your Career and Business Potential?

- Network with professional and business women in several industries
  - Develop leadership skills
- Support women’s growth through scholarships
- Take advantage of the wisdom and experience of a mentor
- Surround yourself with Arab American women who aspire to greatness
- Give back to your community by volunteering
- Benefit from internship experiences
- Support professional and business women who want to get connected in the Arab American Community
- Promote your company to AAWBC’s database of corporate and individual members
- Expand your professional contacts
- Take advantage of discounted member prices
- Benefit from discounts and special offers from Office Depot/Office Max

Making Membership More Meaningful!

Getting involved is the fastest way to make your membership in AAWBC meaningful. Here is a list of committees you can join.

- Mentorship/Young Professionals
  - Internship
  - Scholarship
  - PR/Marketing
  - Grants
  - Website
- Business Woman of the Year
- Sponsorship/Fundraising
- Her Path to Success/Professional Development Series
  - Golf Outing
  - Membership
- Programs/Professional Development

The Mission of AAWBC:

The mission of the AAWBC is to empower Arab American women of diverse professions and industries through networking, leadership and educational/professional development opportunities.

The Vision of AAWBC:

The AAWBC is the premier organization to advance the aspirations and achievements of Arab American business and professional women.

Ways to Join

ONLINE: www.aawbc.org
EMAIL: info@aawbc.org